VALENTINE FREIGHT EXPRESS COMPANY,
Via New and Erie R. R.
N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.
SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:— From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward. Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.
SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Agent,

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND
BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city.

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING
of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

It is perfectly healthy and free from all disagreeable odor.
It is very durable, and may be polished as smooth the finest marble.
It will not peel off, and cannot be blistered by heat.
It is beautifully white, and will not turn yellow from being in darkness.
One Pound will go as far as two pounds of lead paint, and costs but one-half the money.
For ceiling walls and fresco painting, no other can at all compare with it.
It is ready for use as it comes from the keg, and needs no mixing or grinding.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

AND

BUILDERS.

—:oxo:—

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.
He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their beste interests.
During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

Charleston Convention.

The Charleston convention is sorely puzzled with the manufacture of its platform. It is even a more difficult problem than the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency. According to the reports, it seems that the south insists upon a guarantee that their property in slaves shall be protected in the territories and upon the seas. A slave code for the ocean and the territories being provided for, they may then be willing to nominate Douglas. If he should be placed upon such a platform it is not difficult to predict his fate. There will, probably, be no balloting for candidates until the platform is adopted.

The Assessment Laws.

We have received from Dr. Bennett a copy of the assessment laws of this state, as compiled and arranged by the finance committee of the senate and assembly of 1860, together with instructions from the secretary of state. Great care has been used in the compilation, and it would seem that the system is now as perfect as its originators can make it, and if properly enforced, it will bring to light a large amount of property not heretofore taxed. The owners of such property should not feel this to be a burden. All property protected by the laws, should bear its propper share in paying for that protection. We hope all will cheerfully co-operate in giving this law a fair trial—let us see what will be the result of its enforcement.

We notice that the offset of debts can only be made against unsecured credits. Evidences of debt secured by real estate are considered to be personal property, and are to be taxed without any deduction. The listing of property is to take place between the twentieth of May and the tenth of June. The value of property is to be taken at its true value in money under a fair bargain and sale, and not what it would bring at a forced sale. Every person of full age, not a married or insane person, must make a statement.

Real estate will not be assessed this year, except new structures, structures destroyed and lands taxable but not assessed in 1859. Persons refusing to make a statement of their property, will have it valued for them, and fifty per cent added to that valuation. So there will not be much gained by an attempt to secrete their property.

Town and city equalizing boards are to meet every year, but this year their duties will be confined to new entries, new structures, &c.

We may hereafter publish at length the portion of the law in relation to property exempt from taxation, the rules for valuing property, and that portion of it relating to merchants and manufacturers.

THE CASE OF BOOTH.—The Milwaukee News says that if Booth will "get down on his knees and ask pardon," his fine will be remitted. A. F. Pratt writes from Washington that the President will pardon him if he will ask forgiveness. This is about what might be expected of the despotism of this administration. It wants people to get down on its knees to it. The Madison Argus says Booth's case begins to be severe—that his incarceration does not pay the democracy politically. It is more moderate. It says no very extensive act of humiliation is necessary: a "respectful letter" from him is all that is required. Upon this the Argus is assured the fine would be remitted.—They want to get Booth off from their hands, but don't know exactly how to do it. Let the administration say that it has done a mean thing and ask Booth's pardon. That is the proper way.

☞ The Covode congressional investigating committee (says the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette,) has made more startling discoveries of corruption in the book-binding contracts. Even Judge Black himself declared if certain testimony was true, the conduct of the president was "infamous." The same testimony has since been corroborated by five competent and reliable witnesses. The testimony referred to fixes upon the President the direction of the profits on the binding contracts to support papers and influence elections in violation of law in the same manner as was done with those from the printing contracts.

The committee on public expenditures, of which Haskins is chairman, is about to investigate the whole subject of the transportation of army stores to Utah, during the difficulties there for the last few years.—Look out for some rich "developments."

SAFELY THROUGH.—We learn that last week a family of five fugitive slaves from Missouri, passed through this city on their way to a land of freedom under the British monarchy. At Milwaukee provision was made for their passage across the lake, and they have since been heard from in the land of their destination. We are also informed that the "conductor" having them in charge here had in his pocket a handbill offering a reward of $1200 for their recovery, which he had picked up somewhere, but which failed to procure their return.

☞ An affray occurred at a drinking saloon in Chicago on Wednesday morning, in which a young man named Vail was killed by a stab from a man named Riley. They were intoxicated and were discussing the probabilities of the nomination of Douglas.

COLD AND DRY.—The weather is cold, and to-day some flakes of snow fell. There is great need of rain. The earth is dry and wheat is suffering in consequence. The setting out of trees and shrubberry is attended with risk, and not as much is done that line as would be if we had warm and plentiful showers.

☞ J. I. Case, of Racine, having been nominated mayor, has declined.

☞ A bushel of salt from twelve and a half gallons of water has been made from the salt spring recently discovered in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

THE SILVER MINES OF JACKSON COUNTY.—These mines do not prove as satisfactory as was expected. The La Crosse Union says:

The report as to the silver is quite unsatisfactory. Mr. Parsons sunk a shaft thirty feet in the old diggings, and found nothing. He had sunk another on the hill, ten feet through yellow earth, and six feet in bed rock, and was still going down. Loose pieces of ore have been found, one of which on smelting, showed about an ounce of silver. The miners are of the opinion that all ancient mining was done by washing the dirt, in pursuit of gold! Mr. P. thinks it "very probable" that silver will be found in veins, if found at all.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Some three inches of snow fell in the Sanilac (Michigan) lumber region on the night of the 12th inst. It was melted by morning.

The various powers of Europe borrowed $352,000,000 last year, all but $12,000,000 of which was to pay for wars. The Indian loan, the result of the revolt is included in this amount.

NOT BAILED.—Gardner and Lynch, the defaulting Milwaukee city officials, are yet in jail. They cannot procure bail.

When the Canadian telegraph is completed to Belle Isle, we shall be regularly in receipt of intelligence from Europe in five and a half or six days. Hon. Mr. Young, of Montreal, has gone to England on business connected with the extension of the telegraph, and a great effort will be made to have it effected before the arrival of the Prince of Wales on his visit to this continent. In that case, the queen mother can hear from the prince every week, the intelligence being only six days old at farthest.

The candidates for the Baltimore nomination are reduced to four. The only names now prominent are Messrs. McLean of Ohio, Botts of Virginia, Crittenden of Kentucky, and Bell of Tennessee.

The Elmira (N. Y.) Press says that there is an elderly lady residing in that place who has in her possession the remains of a piece of her own wedding cake, which she has preserved for over forty years! It is wrapped up in the same piece of paper that was put around it to "dream by" on the night of her wedding.

THIRD PARTIES.—THE DEMOCRACY CONTRIBUTING TO "THE STRAIGHT AMERICAN PARTY."—Some further developments have been made by the congressional investigating committee respecting the tactics by which Pennsylvania was carried for Buchanan in 1856. The following is an extract from the testimony of Mr. Sylvester J. Megarge, a prominent democratic wire puller and paper dealer in Philadelphia:

Q.—Did you receive any money for political purposes in Pennsylvania or New Jersey from Mr. Wendell?

Witness—Am I really compelled to answer such question?

Mr. Kennedy—I think it is within the scope of the inquiry.

The committee thought the question was a proper one, and that it should be answered.

A.—I did, sir, receive money at various times for political purposes.

Q.—Were those moneys expended for the promotion of the interests of the democratic party?

A.—Not all of them. Some of it was used for a third party, which was organized to divert votes from what was known as "the people's party" with us. The "people's party" was in opposition to the democratic party. We did not know there the party organized as "the republican party." The opposition to the democratic party was called "the people's party," and to divert votes from that party the third party was organized. The object was to divide the "people's party."

Q.—Was such a third party organized?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you believe that was necessary to the success of the democratic party?

A.—We certainly did, or we should not have given them the money.

Q.—What was that third party called?

A.—The straight American party. The "straight outs."

Q.—You speak both of Pennsylvania and New Jersey?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And of those states only?

A.—Yes sir; of those only.

Here we have it in evidence that out of the exorbitant profits paid from the people's money to Wendell, the democratic public printer in 1856, a share was contributed to support the straight American or know-nothing party in Pennsylvania.

"THIN SHOES, THIN SHOES."—The Cleveland Plaindealer says:

"Yesterday at three o'clock a young lady of sixteen summers took final leave of father, mother, and all earthly friends, including a husband to whom she had been married less than half a year. A sad, sad half-honeymoon has it been to her and her husband, as well as the parents who doted over this, their only child, for even a year ago the alarming hectic elicited the whisper of possible consumption.

"Like thousands of others in blooming youth, she had not sufficiently the kind caution against little violations of the laws of health, and admired her little light feet. Yesterday, a very dear friend, about her age, who instinctively hovered about the dying bed of her youthful friend, was present when the interesting scene closed. During the leave-taking, which occupied considerable time on account of the shortness of breath, the dying bride looked earnestly at her young friend, and said, 'Mattie, come here,' and summoning her breath for an extra effort, added, 'thin shoes! thin shoes!'

"At what a fearful cost was that lesson learned, and how few seem willing to learn it for less. To-morrow, in her full wedding robes, Lizzie passes to the silent tomb, leaving with the thousand pleasant recollections of her almost faultless life, the eloquent sermon contained in those expressive words, 'Thin Shoes!'

"DIED.—Yesterday, at 3 P. M., of consumption, ELIZA U., wife of E. Pedrick, daughter of A. H. Hawley, in the 17th year of her age."

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, April 25.

The platform committee have just reported the Cincinnati platform by a vote of 17 to 14. The southern delegation demanding a platform that will not be liable to two constructions. The nomination of Mr. Douglas is considered certain. The entire New York and part of the South Carolina delegation will vote for him.

The convention met at 4 o'clock, a resolution to appoint a national committee to act for the next four years, was discussed and finally referred to a select committee to inquire into the propriety of giving the national committee power to name both the time and place of holding the convention.

The committee on credentials reported that the sitting delegates from New York, Illinois, Massachusetts and Indiana, the latter T. M. Lanahan and Robert J. Brant, are entitled to their seats. The report of the minority of the committee was presented. It was signed by the members of the committee from Alabama, California, Arkansas, Texas, Georgia and Mississippi and recommends that only half of each of the New York contestants be admitted to the convention, each to cast 17 votes.

The debate on the report of the committee on credentials was continued till 6 o'clock when it was closed by the previous question being called. A vote was first taken in the Illinois question and the Douglas delegation was admitted.

A vote was next taken on the Maryland question, and Messrs. Braut and Lanahan were awarded seats.

A vote was then taken by states on the minority report of the committee to divide the votes between the two New York delegations. The states that voted were North Carolina 5, Georgia 10, Virginia 3½, Missouri 1, Alabama 9, Mississippi 7, Texas 4, Tennessee 9, California 3½, Arkansas 3.—Ayes 55, nays 110,50.

The Dean Richmond delegates were admitted and Wood delegates excluded. The announcement of the result was received with cheers and great excitement. A resolution to admit the Wood delegates to honorable seats on the floor added to the excitement, but the resolution was finally laid over under the rule until to-morrow.

Mr. Montgomery moved that the resolution for appointing a national committee be laid over till after the nomination of candidates for the presidency.

The death of Gov. Robinson of Vermont was announced to the convention and a resolution of condolence with his family was adopted. It was also resolved to accompany the remains from the Mills House to the boat immediately after the adjournment.

The convention then, at 7 o'clock, adjourned.

CHARLESTON, Wednesday night.

Tribune's Correspondence.—The resolution has been presented to the platform committee prepared by Senator Pugh and Mr. Barksdale, to the effect that it is the duty of the federal government to protect every species of property in the territories and the high sea, and wherever its jurisdiction extends by all constitutional means. This is tendered as a compromise, but the south demands something besides barren generalities. Leading Douglas men are willing to make almost any concessions for the nomination, but the rural districts in Ohio and elsewhere resist the slave code as more than they can carry. Several delegates had a conference as to that point last night and to-day with little harmony.

11 P. M.

The Georgia delegation have just adjourned and instructed their members on the platform committee to insist on the protection of slavery in the territories.

The platform committee is still sitting and much excited with conflicting propositions.

Half of the Wood delegation sailed in the National to-night. Mr. Wood remains till Saturday.

The New York vote was tendered complimentary to Mr. Slidell on Sunday but it was declined by him.

The committee on platforms will insist on a plank intended to counteract the position taken by the administration concerning the right of naturalized citizens abroad, and denying totally the doctrine asserted in the secretary's letter.

There is hardly a reasonable doubt but that New York will go for Douglass. The delegation, in a conference yesterday, had a majority of nearly two to one in favor of the proposition allowing delegates to cast individually the vote of states not instructed.—This was considered a test, as the Douglas men claimed a large ascession of strength, but which, however, is found to be overrated upon analyzing both sides. The Douglas northwestern column will probably be broken by a defection in Minnesota under this rule, likewise he will meet with a loss in Maine and perhaps Connecticut. He will gain a few scattering votes in the south, but not to the number estimated. His main reliance is accession after the second or third ballot, but this is altogether uncertain unless with an acceptable platform.

Herald's Correspondence.—It is asserted by Dickenson's friends in the delegation that they have not secured a majority for him, and will give him the vote of New York which must be cast as a unit. This argument was made by the Albany regency to give them the control of the whole thirty-five votes, but is now turned against them. The two strongest men now appear to be Dickenson and Douglas, and the probability is that one of them will be nominated. The northern delegations will perhaps be induced to take Dickenson in preference to Douglas, to prevent the contemplated vote of the south, but if the south vote on the platform, which is probable enough, then Douglas will have the best chance. All the New York delegates now deny that they are for Douglas, and it is stated that even Richmond has signed a paper that he will not go for him. This is either because a majority is against him, and the delegation is instructed to vote as a unit, or because the minority do not wish to admit being beaten as a minority on it, as a matter of policy, till after the contesting states are decided. Some of the friends of Douglas here from New York say they will vote for Seward if their favorite is not nominated.

WASHINGTON, April 25.

It has transpired to-day that Senator Andrew Johnson looks with no unfavorable eye to the nomination of Douglas. The Tennessee delegation at Charleston are probably scarcely ignorant of his views and feelings. Senator Johnson has never given any approval of the agitation for a slave code, saying that it could not be got even if there was anything advantageous in its adoption.

CHARLESTON, April 26.

Convention assembled at 10 o'clock.—Mr. Fitzhugh of Virginia presented a series of resolutions in favor of the fugitive slave law. Referred to committee on platform. Mr. Hugh of Pennsylvania recognizing as a fact, that while the government has no power to protect slave property in the territories, it should provide for the enforcement of existing laws and protect existing rights. Referred to committee on platform. The committee on platforms is still out, and it is understood they are wholly unable to agree, and that three separate platforms will be presented.

A resolution was presented declaring that emigrants to the territories, carrying with them slave property are entitled to protection to such property. Mr. Walker of Miss. offered an amendment, declaring it the duty of the government to afford legal protection to all classes of property, slave or other, in the territories or on the high sea. The amendment was accepted and the resolution as amended was referred to the committee on platform.

The Tennessee platform was then presented and referred.

A dozen or more resolutions with regard to slaves in the territories were presented from various delegations and referred to the platform committee.

A number of resolutions relative to a railroad to the Pacific were presented and referred.

Mr. Seward of Georgia presented a resolution on the rights of slaveholders, desiring a suitable platform, and declaring Jas. Guthrie of Kentucky as the proper man to nominate for the presidency.

A resolution on the tarriff being presented, Capt. Isaiah Rynders proposed to include Monongahela whisky in the articles to be protected.

Mr. Bayard of Deleware hoped the convention would not be made to appear ridiculous before the country by these resolutions, and moved that they be referred without reading.

Captain Rynders said he desired by his amendment to put a stop to them and he had succeeded.

The committee on platform not beady to report, the convention adjourned until four o'clock.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

Mr. Smith of Va., rising to a question of privilege, read an extract from Mr. Bingham's speech, in which the latter said that Maryland tolerated open and active efforts among her citizens for the abolition of domestic slavery, and that Virginia felt and saw that in every fibre of her existence that she must either throw off that great wrong or perish by reason off its continuance.

Mr. Smith said that supposing the gentleman from Ohio did not desire to do him injustice, he, Smith, thought to correct him by remarking that he did not want the gentleman to say that Virginia did that; some of her politicians did it, but Virginia repudiated it.

Mr. Bingham replied, that in speaking of the politicians of Virginia, he wished to say the south has now men superior to all such narrow, bigoted, selfish, mercenary prejudices, but unhappily the gentleman from Virginia is not one of them.

Mr. Smith, after hearing the above, said it would be observed to be a broad denunciation of the entire south, Virginia especially. The great body of its people are accused of being narrow, bigoted, selfish and mercenary, and that he, Smith, was one of them, that he understood Bingham meaning what he said.

Mr. Bingham—I meant what I said.

Mr. Smith—It is false, and the man who utters it is a deliberate calumniator.

Mr. Bingham replied, that the gentleman's declaration was not very likely to cause him to strike out facts of history; what he said he stood by.

ATCHISON, K. T., April 25.

The Salt Lake express arrived here at 6 P. M., bringing five thousand dollars in dust from Denver city, and three passengers from Salt Lake. In crossing the mountains they were obliged to leave one of their messengers, on account of being snow blind.

John Scudder who killed Basset and left Denver city immediately after the murder last fall, had returned a give himself up to the authorities. He was having his trial when the express left. It was generally thought he would be acquitted.

A DIFFICULT QUESTION ANSWERED.—Can anybody tell why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl was't made at the same time to wait on her?—Exchange.

We can, easily! Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar-string to be sewed on, or a glove to be mended "right away, quick, now!" Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretched himself, yawning out, "ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he. He made the fire and hung over the tea-kettle himself, we'll venture, and pulled the radishes, and peeled the bananas, and did every thing else that he'd ought to! He milked the cows, and fed the chickens, and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner, when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out until 11 o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for the out-and-out candidate, and then scolded because poor dear Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. To be sure he acted rather cowardly about the apple gathering time, but then that don't depreciate his general hopefulness about the garden! He never played billiards, nor drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while solitary Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he did not think she was specially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten his wife's cares a little.

That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and we wish it was the reason that none of her fair descendants did.—Life Illustrated.

HOUSE RENTS IN CHICAGO.—Rents have fallen greatly in Chicago. The Press judges from present appearances that there will be a decided panic among landlords to procure good tenants, and says that landlords in some parts of the city will be very glad to accept 25 per cent. of the rates of 1857 in order to secure or retain desirable tenants.

A little girl, five years old, named Patten was killed at Mansfield, Ohio, a few evenings ago. She was playing with some other children about a fence, and playfully put her head through the space between two rails. The top rail, which was loose, was thrown down by one of the other children, and struck the child upon the back of the neck, breaking it, and causing almost instant death. Her parents live in Mansfield.

Robert J. Walker's Confessions.

Robert J. Walker, ex Secretary of the Treasury, and ex Governor of Kansas, was called before the Covode committee, and examined as a witness. He began by giving a history of Kansas affairs while he was governor. He would not consent to go to Kansas unles his wife would consent. Buchanan had a long interview with her, and finally obtained her consent, by persuading her that nothing else would save the Union from destruction. In the course of his statement before the committee he said:

HE WISHES TO MAKE KANSAS A SLAVE STATE.

I deem it due to frankness to say that, from my long residence in the south, and my very deep gratitude to the state which had adopted me and clothed me with the highest honors it could bestow, and repeated from time to time, and my general views on the subject of slavery, I should have greatly preferred, with a view to maintain the equilibrium of the government, and to perpetuate the Union, which I considered the great and paramount object—I should have preferred that a majority of the people of Kansas would have made it a slave state. I avowed these views very fully in my public communications in Kansas. I never disguised my opinions upon this subject, and I especially reiterated the opinion that I was thus in favor of maintaining the equilibrium of the government by giving the south a majority in the senate, while the north would always necessarily have a majority in the house of representatives, which opinion I have entertained since the Missouri compromise, avowing it at that time and on a great many public occasions ever since. This opinion I still entertain, not from any sectional views, but because I do believe it would best tend to accomplish the great and paramount object of preserving the government.

THE FORGED RETURNS.

It first was fully developed by the terrible forgeries in the pretended returns. They were not legal returns that were sent to me as governor of the territory, and which I rejected, although that rejection gave a majority of the territorial legislature to my political opponents, the republicans—at which, I am free to say, I was deeply grieved. I did my best to secure a democratic majority in that legislature, and exerted myself most anxiously, making stump speeches. The first forgery presented to me was the case at Oxford, which was a forgery upon its face, and that it was so has since been acknowledged by one of the judges whose names were signed to it. In a public document, he declares that he never did affix his signature to it. In Oxford, some sixteen hundred votes were attempted to be given in a village of six houses, where there were not fifty voters, and it is now ascertained that not thirty votes were really given. The rest were all forgeries.

HE IS DENOUNCED FOR REFUSING TO BE BRIBED.

My rejection of that return, inasmuch as it embraced the two large counties of Johnson and Douglas, gave a majority of the territorial legislature to the republicans. I was then very bitterly denounced, at which I felt profoundly indifferent, because I thought that any man who would approve or endorse such forgeries was a base and dishonest man, and I preferred his censure to his approval. Various personal threats were made, which I also disregarded. The next return presented was that from McGee county, where there certainly were not twenty voters, but which was returned as over twelve hundred voters, given at three different precints, and where it is now ascertained that there was no election holden at all—not a vote given. These returns were also rejected by me. And at length it was fully developed that, contrary to all the pledges given, especially by Calhoun himself, the president of the convention, that they would submit the constitution to the vote of the people, another course was resolved upon.

MR. CALHOUN OFFERS HIM A HIGH POSITION TO GIVE IN.

Finally, a few days before the vote was taken upon the subject, Mr. Calhoun, the president of the convention, called upon me, and submitted substantially the programme as to slavery which was subsequently adopted by the convention, and asked my concurrence. He presented various prospects of very high place from the people of this Union, if I would concur, and assured me that that was the programme of the administration. I said that was impossible, and showed Mr. Calhoun this letter of Mr. Buchanan to me of the 12th of July, 1857. He said that the administration had changd its policy. I told him I did not believe it, but let who would change their views on that question, with me the question of submitting the constitution to the vote of the people was fundamental, and I never would change or modify my views on that question in the slightest respect—that I would fight it out to the end, be the consequences to me personally or politically what they might. Mr. Calhoun continued to insist that I ought to go with the President upon the subject.

Mrs. Mindwell Granger, the venerable mother of Hon. Francis Granger and of Gen. John A. Granger, died at Canandaigua New York, on Tuesday last, at the age of ninety years.

The everlasting Burdell case is up again in the New York courts. The heirs are now quarreling among themselves as to the division of the murdered dentist's property.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS
FROM THE USE OF
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE
Hypophosphites
IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphite:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *
W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

Charleston Convention.

The Charleston convention is sorely puzzled with the manufacture of its platform. It is even a more difficult problem than the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency. According to the reports, it seems that the south insists upon a guarantee that their property in slaves shall be protected in the territories and upon the seas. A slave code for the ocean and the territories being provided for, they may then be willing to nominate Douglas. If he should be placed upon such a platform it is not difficult to predict his fate. There will, probably, be no ballotting for candidates until the platform is adopted.

The Assessment Laws.

We have received from Dr. Bennett a copy of the assessment laws of this state, as compiled and arranged by the finance committees of the senate and assembly of 1860, together with instructions from the secretary of state. Great care has been used in this compilation, and it would seem that the system is now as perfect as its originators can make it, and if properly enforced, it will bring to light a large amount of property not heretofore taxed. The owners of such property should not feel this to be a burden. All property protected by the laws, should bear its propper share in paying for that protection. We hope all will cheerfully cooperate in giving this law a fair trial—let us see what will be the result of its enforcement.

We notice that the offset of debts can only be made against unsecured credits. Evidences of debt secured by real estate are considered to be personal property, and are to be taxed without any deduction. The listing of property is to take place between he twentieth of May and the tenth of June. The value of property is to be taken at its true value in money under a fair bargain and sale, and not what it would bring at a forced sale. Every person of full age, not a married or insane person, must make a statement.

Real estate will not be assessed this year, except new structures, structures destroyed and lands taxable but not assessed in 1859. Persons refusing to make a statement of their property, will have it valued for them, and fifty per cent added to that valuation. So there will not be much gained by an attempt to secrete their property.

Town and city equalizing boards are to meet every year, but this year their duties will be confined to new entries, new structures, &c.

We may hereafter publish at length the provisions of the law in relation to property exempt from taxation, the rules for valuing property, and that portion of it relating to merchants and manufacturers.

The Case of Booth.—The Milwaukee News says that if Booth will "get down on his knees and ask pardon," his fine will be remitted. A. F. Pratt writes from Washington that the President will pardon him if he will ask forgiveness. This is about what might be expected of the despotism of this administration. It wants people to get down on its knees to it. The Madison Argus says Booth's case begins to be severe—that is, his incarceration does not pay the democracy politically. It is more moderate. It says no very extensive act of humiliation is necessary; a "respectful letter" from him is all that is required. Upon this the Argus is assured the fine would be remitted.—They want to get Booth off from their hands, but don't know exactly how to do it. Let the administration say that it has done a mean thing and ask Booth's pardon. That is the proper way.

☞ The Covode congressional investigating committee (says the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette,) has made more startling discoveries of corruption in the book-binding contracts. Even Judge Black himself declared if certain testimony was true, the conduct of the president was "INFAMOUS." The same testimony has since been corroborated by five competent and reliable witnesses. The testimony referred to fixes upon the President the direction of the profits on the binding contracts to support papers and influence elections in violation of law in the same manner as was done with those from the printing contracts.

The committee on public expenditures, of which Haskins is chairman, is about to investigate the whole subject of the transportation of armey stores to Utah, during the difficulties there for the last few years.—Look out for some rich "developments."

Safely Through.—We learn that last week a family of five fugitive slaves from Missouri, passed through this city on their way to a land of freedom under the British monarchy. At Milwaukee provision was made for their passage across the lake, and they have since been heard from in the land of their destination. We are also informed that the "conductor" having them in charge here had in his pocket a handbill offering a reward of $1200 for their recovery, which he had picked up somewhere, but which failed to procure their return.

☞ An affray occurred at a drinking saloon in Chicago on Wednesday morning, in which a young man named Vail was killed by a stab from a man named Riley. They were intoxicated and were discussing the probabilities of the nomination of Douglas.

Cold and Dry.—The weather is cold, and to-day some flakes of snow fell. There is great need of rain. The earth is dry and wheat is suffering in consequence. The setting out of trees and shrubbercy is attended with risk, and not as much is done that line as would be if we had warm and plentiful showers.

☞ J. I. Case, of Racine, having been nominated mayor, has declined.

☞ A bushel of salt from twelve and a half gallons of water has been made from the salt spring recently discovered in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The Silver Mines of Jackson County.—These mines do not prove as satisfactory as was expected. The La Crosse Union says:

The report as to the silver is quite unsatisfactory. Mr. Parsons sunk a shaft thirty feet in the old diggings, and found nothing. He had sunk another on the hill, ten feet through yellow earth, and six feet in bed rock, and was still going down. Loose pieces of ore have been found, one of which on smelting, showed about an ounce of silver. The miners are of the opinion that all ancient mining was done by washing the dirt, in pursuit of gold! Mr. P. thinks it "very probable" that silver will be found in veins, if found at all.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Some three inches of snow fell in the Sanilac (Michigan) lumber region on the night of the 12th inst. It was melted by morning.

The various powers of Europe borrowed $352,000,000 last year, all but $12,000,000 of which was to pay for wars. The Indian loan, the result of the revolt is included in this amount.

Not Bailed.—Gardner and Lynch, the defaulting Milwaukee city officials, are yet in jail. They cannot procure bail.

When the Canadian telegraph is completed to Belle Isle, we shall be regularly in receipt of intelligence from Europe in five and a half or six days. Hon. Mr. Young, of Montreal, has gone to England on business connected with the extension of the telegraph, and a great effort will be made to have it effected before the arrival of the Prince of Wales on his visit to this continent. In that case, the queen mother can hear from the prince every week, the intelligence being only six days old at farthest.

The candidates for the Baltimore nomination are reduced to four. The only names now prominent are Messrs. McLean of Ohio, Botts of Virginia, Crittenden of Kentucky, and Bell of Tennessee.

The Elmira (N. Y.) Press says that there is an elderly lady residing in that place who has in her possession the remains of a piece of her own wedding cake, which she has preserved for over forty years! It is wrapped up in the same piece of paper that was put around it to "dream by" on the night of her wedding.

Third Parties.—The Democracy Contributing to "The Straight American Party."—Some further developments have been made by the congressional investigating committee respecting the tactics by which Pennsylvania was carried for Buchanan in 1856. The following is an extract from the testimony of Mr. Sylvester J. Megarge, a prominent democratic wire puller and paper dealer in Philadelphia:

Q.—Did you receive any money for political purposes in Pennsylvania or New Jersey from Mr. Wendell?

Witness—Am I really compelled to answer such question?

Mr. Kennedy—I think it is within the scope of the inquiry.

The committee thought the question was a proper one, and that it should be answered.

A.—I did, sir, receive money at various times for political purposes.

Q.—Were those moneys expended for the promotion of the interests of the democratic party?

A.—Not all of them. Some of it was used for a third party, which was organized to divert votes from what was known as "the people's party" with us. The "people's party" was in opposition to the democratic party. We did not know there the party organized as "the republican party." The opposition to the democratic party was called "the people's party," and to divert votes from that party the third party was organized. The object was to divide the "people's party."

Q.—Was such a third party organized?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you believe that was necessary to the success of the democratic party?

A.—We certainly did, or we should not have given them the money.

Q.—What was that third party called?

A.—The straight American party. The "straight outs."

Q.—You speak both of Pennsylvania and New Jersey?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And of those states only?

A.—Yes sir; of those only.

Here we have it in evidence that out of the exorbitant profits paid from the people's money to Wendell, the democratic public printer in 1856, a share was contributed to support the straight American or know-nothing party in Pennsylvania.

"Thin Shoes, Thin Shoes."—The Cleveland Plaindealer says:

"Yesterday at three o'clock a young lady of sixteen summers took final leave of father, mother, and all earthly friends, including a husband to whom she had been married less than half a year. A sad, sad half-honeymoon has it been to her and her husband, as well as the parents who doted over this, their only child, for even a year ago the alarming hectic elicited the whisper of possible consumption.

"Like thousands of others in blooming youth, she had not sufficiently the kind caution against little violations of the laws of health, and admired her little light feet. Yesterday, a very dear friend, about her age, who instinctively hovered about the dying bed of her youthful friend, was present when the interesting scene closed. During the leave-taking, which occupied considerable time on account of the shortness of breath, the dying bride looked earnestly at her young friend and said, 'Mattie, come here,' and summoning her breath for an extra effort, added, 'thin shoes! thin shoes!!'

"At what a fearful cost was that lesson learned, and how few seem willing to learn it for less. To-morrow, in her full wedding robes, Lizzie passes to the silent tomb, leaving with the thousand pleasant recollections of her almost faultless life, the eloquent sermon contained in those expressive words, 'Thin Shoes!'

"Died.—Yesterday, at 3 P. M., of consumption, Eliza U., wife of E. Pedrick, daughter of A. H. Hawley, in the 17th year of her age."

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE MORNING GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Charleston, April 25.

The platform committee have just reported the Cincinnati platform by a vote of 17 to 11. The southern delegation demanding a platform that will not be liable to two constructions. The nomination of Mr. Douglas is considered certain. The entire New York and part of the South Carolina delegation will vote for him.

The convention met at 4 o'clock, a resolution to appoint a national committee to act for the next four years, was discussed and finally referred to a select committee to inquire into the propriety of giving the national committee power to name both the time and place of holding the convention.

The committee on credentials reported that the sitting delegates from New York, Illinois, Massachusetts and Indiana, the latter T. M. Lanahan and Robert J. Brant, are entitled to their seats. The report of the minority of the committee was presented. It was signed by the members of the committee from Alabama, California, Arkansas, Texas, Georgia and Mississippi and recommends that only half of each of the New York contestants be admitted to the convention, each to cast 17 votes.

The debate on the report of the committee on credentials was continued till 6 o'clock when it was closed by the previous question being called. A vote was first taken in the Illinois question and the Douglas delegation was admitted.

A vote was next taken on the Maryland question, and Messrs. Brant and Lanahan were awarded seats.

A vote was then taken by states on the minority report of the committee to divide the votes between the two New York delegations. The states that voted were North Carolina 5, Georgia 10, Virginia 3½, Missouri 1, Alabama 9, Mississippi 7, Texas 4, Tennessee 9, California 3½, Arkansas 3.—Ayes 55, nays 110.50.

The Dean Richmond delegates were admitted and Wood delegates excluded. The announcement of the result was received with cheers and great excitement. A resolution to admit the Wood delegates to honorable seats on the floor added to the excitement, but the resolution was finally laid over under the rule until to-morrow.

Mr. Montgomery moved that the resolution for appointing a national committee be laid over till after the nomination of candidates for the presidency.

The death of Gov. Robinson of Vermont was announced to the convention and a resolution of condolence with his family was adopted. It was also resolved to accompany the remains from the Mills House to the boat immediately after the adjournment.

The convention then, at 7 o'clock, adjourned.

Charleston, Wednesday night.

Tribune's Correspondence.—The resolution has been presented to the platform committee prepared by Senator Pugh and Mr. Barksdale, to the effect that it is the duty of the federal government to protect every species of property in the territories and the high sea, and wherever its jurisdiction extends by all constitutional means. This is tendered as a compromise, but the south demands something besides barren generalities. Leading Douglas men are willing to make almost any concessions for the nomination, but the rural districts in Ohio and elsewhere resist the slave code as more than they can carry. Several delegates had a conference as to that point last night and to-day with little harmony.

11 P. M.

The Georgia delegation have just adjourned and instructed their members on the platform committee to insist on the protection of slavery in the territories.

The platform committee is still sitting and much excited with conflicting propositions.

Half of the Wood delegation sailed in the National to-night. Mr. Wood remains till Saturday.

The New York vote was tendered complimentary to Mr. Slidell on Sunday but it was declined by him.

The committee on platforms will insist on a plank intended to counteract the position taken by the administration concerning the right of naturalized citizens abroad, and denying totally the doctrine asserted in the secretary's letter.

There is hardly a reasonable doubt but that New York will go for Douglass. The delegation, in a conference yesterday, had a majority of nearly two to one in favor of the proposition allowing delegates to cast individually the vote of states not instructed.—This was considered a test, as the Douglas men claimed a large ascession of strength, but which, however, is found to be overrated upon analyzing both sides. The Douglas northwestern column will probably be broken by a defection in Minnesota under this rule, likewise he will meet with a loss in Maine and perhaps Connecticut. He will gain a few scattering votes in the south, but not to the number estimated. His main reliance is accession after the second or third ballot, but this is altogether uncertain unless with an acceptable platform.

Herald's Correspondence.—It is asserted by Dickenson's friends in the delegation that they have not secured a majority for him, and will give him the vote of New York which must be cast as a unit. This argument was made by the Albany regency to give them the control of the whole thirty-five votes, but is now turned against them. The two strongest men now appear to be Dickenson and Douglas, and the probability is that one of them will be nominated. The northern delegations will perhaps be induced to take Dickenson in preference to Douglas, to prevent the contemplated vote of the south, but if the south vote on the platform, which is probable enough, then Douglas will have the best chance. All the New York delegates now deny that they are for Douglas, and it is stated that even Richmond has signed a paper that he will not go for him. This is either because a majority is against him, and the delegation is instructed to vote as a unit, or because the minority do not wish to admit being beaten as a minority on it, as a matter of policy, till after the contesting states are decided. Some of the friends of Douglas here from New York say they will vote for Seward if their favorite is not nominated.

Washington, April 25.

It has transpired to-day that Senator Andrew Johnson looks with no unfavorable eye to the nomination of Douglas. The Tennessee delegation at Charleston are probably scarcely ignorant of his views and feelings. Senator Johnson has never given any approval of the agitation for a slave code, saying that it could not be got even if there was anything advantageous in its adoption.

Charleston, April 26.

Convention assembled at 10 o'clock.—Mr. Fitzhugh of Virginia presented a series of resolutions in favor of the fugitive slave law. Referred to committee on platform. Mr. Hugh of Pennsylvania recognizing as a fact, that while the government has no power to protect slave property in the territories, it should provide for the enforcement of existing laws and protect existing rights. Referred to committee on platform. The committee on platforms is still out, and it is understood they are wholly unable to agree, and that three separate platforms will be presented.

A resolution was presented declaring that emigrants to the territories, carrying with them slave property are entitled to protection to such property. Mr. Walker of Miss. offered an amendment, declaring it the duty of the government to afford legal protection to all classes of property, slave or other, in the territories or on the high sea. The amendment was accepted and the resolution as amended was referred to the committee on platform.

The Tennessee platform was then presented and referred.

A dozen or more resolutions with regard to slaves in the territories were presented from various delegations and referred to the platform committee.

A number of resolutions relative to a railroad to the Pacific were presented and referred.

Mr. Seward of Georgia presented a resolution on the rights of slaveholders, desiring a suitable platform, and declaring Jas. Guthrie of Kentucky as the proper man to nominate for the presidency.

A resolution on the tarriff being presented, Capt. Isaiah Rynders proposed to include Monongahela whisky in the articles to be protected.

Mr. Bayard of Deleware hoped the convention would not be made to appear ridiculous before the country by these resolutions, and moved that they be referred without reading.

Captain Rynders said he desired by his amendment to put a stop to them and he had succeeded.

The committee on platform not beady to report, the convention adjourned until four o'clock.

Washington, April 26.

Mr. Smith of Va., rising to a question of privilege, read an extract from Mr. Bingham's speech, in which the latter said that Maryland tolerated open and active efforts among her citizens for the abolition of domestic slavery, and that Virginia felt and saw that in every fibre of her existence that she must either throw off that great wrong or perish by reason off its continuance.

Mr. Smith said that supposing the gentleman from Ohio did not desire to do him injustice, he, Smith, thought to correct him by remarking that he did not want the gentleman to say that Virginia did that; some of her politicians did it, but Virginia repudiated it.

Mr. Bingham replied, that in speaking of the politicians of Virginia, he wished to say the south has now men superior to all such narrow, bigoted, selfish, mercenary prejudices, but unhappily the gentleman from Virginia is not one of them.

Mr. Smith, after hearing the above, said it would be observed to be a broad denunciation of the entire south, Virginia especially. The great body of its people are accused of being narrow, bigoted, selfish and mercenary, and that he, Smith, was one of them, that he understood Bingham meaning what he said.

Mr. Bingham—I meant what I said.

Mr. Smith—It is false, and the man who utters it is a deliberate calumniator.

Mr. Bingham replied, that the gentleman's declaration was not very likely to cause him to strike out facts of history; what he said he stood by.

Atchison, K. T., April 25.

The Salt Lake express arrived here at 6 P. M., bringing five thousand dollars in dust from Denver city, and three passengers from Salt Lake. In crossing the mountains they were obliged to leave one of their messengers, on account of being snow blind.

John Scudder who killed Basset and left Denver city immediately after the murder last fall, had returned a give himself up to the authorities. He was having his trial when the express left. It was generaily thought he would be acquitted.

A Difficult Question Answered.—Can anybody tell why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl was't made at the same time to wait on her?—Exchange.

We can, easily! Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar-string to be sewed on, or a glove to be mended "right away, quick, now!" Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretched himself, yawning out, "ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he. He made the fire and hung over the tea-kettle himself, we'll venture, and pulled the radishes, and peeled the bananas, and did every thing else that he'd ought to! He milked the cows, and fed the chickens, and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner, when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out until 11 o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for the out-and-out candidate, and then scolded because poor dear Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. To be sure he acted rather cowardly about the apple gathering time, but then that don't depreciate his general hopefulness about the garden! He never played billiards, nor drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while solitary Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he did not think she was specially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten his wife's cares a little.

That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and we wish it was the reason that none of her fair descendants did.—Life Illustrated.

House Rents in Chicago.—Rents have fallen greatly in Chicago. The Press judges from present appearances that there will be a decided panic among landlords to procure good tenants, and says that landlords in some parts of the city will be very glad to accept 25 per cent. of the rates of 1857 in order to secure or retain desirable tenants.

A little girl, five years old, named Patten was killed at Mansfield, Ohio, a few evenings ago. She was playing with some other children about a fence, and playfully put her head through the space between two rails. The top rail, which was loose, was thrown down by one of the other children, and struck the child upon the back of the neck, breaking it, and causing almost instant death. Her parents live in Mansfield.

Robert J. Walker's Confessions.

Robert J. Walker, ex Secretary of the Treasury, and ex Governor of Kansas, was called before the Covode committee, and examined as a witness. He began by giving a history of Kansas affairs while he was governor. He would not consent to go to Kansas unles his wife would consent. Buchanan had a long interview with her, and finally obtained her consent, by persuading her that nothing else would save the Union from destruction. In the course of his statement before the committee he said:

HE WISHES TO MAKE KANSAS A SLAVE STATE.

I deem it due to frankness to say that, from my long residence in the south, and my very deep gratitude to the state which had adopted me and clothed me with the highest honors it could bestow, and repeated from time to time, and my general views on the subject of slavery, I should have greatly preferred, with a view to maintain the equilibrium of the government, and to perpetuate the Union, which I considered the great and paramount object—I should have preferred that a majority of the people of Kansas would have made it a slave state. I avowed these views very fully in my public communications in Kansas. I never disguised my opinions upon this subject, and I especially reiterated the opinion that I was thus in favor of maintaining the equilibrium of the government by giving the south a majority in the senate, while the north would always necessarily have a majority in the house of representatives, which opinion I have entertained since the Missouri compromise, avowing it at that time and on a great many public occasions ever since. This opinion I still entertain, not from any sectional views, but because I do believe it would best tend to accomplish the great and paramount object of preserving the government.

THE FORGED RETURNS.

It first was fully developed by the terrible forgeries in the pretended returns. They were not legal returns that were sent to me as governor of the territory, and which I rejected, although that rejection gave a majority of the territorial legislature to my political opponents, the republicans—at which, I am free to say, I was deeply grieved. I did my best to secure a democratic majority in that legislature, and exerted myself most anxiously, making stump speeches. The first forgery presented to me was the case at Oxford, which was a forgery upon its face, and that it was so has since been acknowledged by one of the judges whose names were signed to it. In a public document, he declares that he never did affix his signature to it. In Oxford, some sixteen hundred votes were attempted to be given in a village of six houses, where there were not fifty voters, and it is now ascertained that not thirty votes were really given. The rest were all forgeries.

HE IS DENOUNCED FOR REFUSING TO BE BRIBED.

My rejection of that return, inasmuch as it embraced the two large counties of Johnson and Douglas, gave a majority of the territorial legislature to the republicans. I was then very bitterly denounced, at which I felt profoundly indifferent, because I thought that any man who would approve or endorse such forgeries was a base and dishonest man, and I preferred his censure to his approval. Various personal threats were made, which I also disregarded. The next return presented was that from McGee county, where there certainly were not twenty voters, but which was returned as over twelve hundred voters, given at three different precints, and where it is now ascertained that there was no election holden at all—not a vote given. These returns were also rejected by me. And at length it was fully developed that, contrary to all the pledges given, especially by Calhoun himself, the president of the convention, that they would submit the constitution to the vote of the people, another course was resolved upon.

MR. CALHOUN OFFERS HIM A HIGH POSITION TO GIVE IN.

Finally, a few days before the vote was taken upon the subject, Mr. Calhoun, the president of the convention, called upon me, and submitted substantially the programme as to slavery which was subsequently adopted by the convention, and asked my concurrence. He presented various prospects of very high place from the people of this Union, if I would concur, and assured me that that was the programme of the administration. I said that was impossible, and showed Mr. Calhoun this letter of Mr. Buchanan to me of the 12th of July, 1857. He said that the administration had changd its policy. I told him I did not believe it, but let who would change their views on that question, with me the question of submitting the constitution to the vote of the people was fundamental, and I never would change or modify my views on that question in the slightest respect—that I would fight it out to the end, be the consequences to me personally or politically what they might. Mr. Calhoun continued to insist that I ought to go with the President upon the subject.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

FROM THE USE OF

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE

Hypophosphites

IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

Chatham, Pa., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

Friend J. Winchester:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * *
W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

Prices.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Teachers Institute.

The Institute held at this place, was opened on Monday evening, April 2d, by a lecture from Superintendent Pickard.—The work of Tuesday, commenced at 8 o'clock A. M. The first hour was occupied by Prof. Williams, on the general principles of English Grammar, and methods of teaching it. The subject of Geography was next taken up by Supt. Pickard. The third hour was devoted to the subject of elocution, conducted by J. W. Williams. The afternoon exercises commenced at 2 o'clock.

1st. Mental Arithmetic by Prof. Cornwall, followed by B. A. Barlow, on Practical Arithmetic. After an intermission, the subject of Orthography was taken up by Prof. Williams, and Penmanship by H. Babcock. The last hour was given to miscellany and discussions, in which a large number of teachers participated.

The exercises of Tuesday evening, consisted of an address by Prof. Cornwall, followed by remarks by J. F. Eberhart, commissioner of the common schools of the city of Chicago, and the reading of the Critique, by A. Gunsolus.

The work of Wednesday was conducted chiefly by Supt. Pickard until 10 o'clock, when it became necessary for him to leave, in order to meet another institute at Horicon. An effecting appeal was made to the teachers, by Mr. Pickard, after which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that we fully appreciate the advantages we have received from the visit of Supt. Pickard, and deeply regret that the pressure of his business calls him away.

The work of the Institute was resumed by Prof. Eberhart, who was joined in the afternoon by Prof. C. H. Allen, of Pennsylvania.

The address on Wednesday, was given by Com. Eberhart, on the subject, "Living and Existing." We have seldom listened to a more impressive speech. Remarks were made by Prof. Allen, whose ability in the management of Institutes is too well known throughout the state to need comment.

The address of Thursday evening, was also given by Com. Eberhart, and met the fullest expectations of those who listened to him on Wednesday evening.

The Critique of Wednesday eve. was read by Mr. N. C. Twining; that of Thursday evening, by B. A. Barlow.

The following resolution was also passed on Friday:

"Whereas, by the provision of our leading educational men, we have been favored with an interview with some of the first teachers in the land, and believing this interview, or love feast has been instrumental in doing much good among the teachers of Albion and vicinity. Therefore Resolved, that we, as members of the Institute tender our most heartfelt thanks to Prof's. Allen and Eberhart, for their eminent services and instruction."

The exercises were closed on Friday afternoon by an address from Dr. Barnard.

The address was as plain and practical, as the man is eminent. It was every way worthy of the character of the man.

The exercises were interspersed with music throughout. There were over ninety teacher's present. The occasion was one long to be remembered by the teacher's who so met from Albion.

A BUSINESS QUAKER.—The Quakers are, in the main, as every one knows, a thrifty, kind-hearted, and undoubtedly honest people; but in some of them, even as among the "world's honest people," love of filthy lucre will predominate. In one of these farming communities lived friend Benjamin and his son. It was their custom to buy up cattle to fatten for sale. One day Benjamin, Jr., had selected a choice portion of stock from a passing drove, and was about to buy, when Benjamin, Sr., came along.

"Father, I am about to buy these cattle; what dost thee think of them?"

"What does he ask? So much? I guess thee'll get them for less; offer him $500, and wait till morning, if he don't trade."

Filial Ben assented—made an offer in vain—went home with the old gentleman—slept—and next morning, after caring for the stock, mounted his horse to try again to buy the cattle. But on the way he met Benjamin, Senior, returning home with the whole herd in question. Benjamin, Senior, was wealthy as well as smart—he had taken an early start and bought the lot.

"Thee will let me have my 'portion,' will thee not?" asked filial Ben.

"No sonny, of course not: I've bought the whole—want 'em all."

"What? Isn't that a hard trick to play thy own son? and I trusted to thee!"

"Ah, Benny," said pater familius, reprovingly, "thee must be sharp and wide awake; trust nobody, Benjamin; watch everybody; watch thy father, Benjamin; watch thy father!"

Quite likely for young Benjamin the admonition was needless thenceforward.—Phil. Press.

INCIDENT OF THE INDIAN MASSACRE AT HUMBOLDT BAY.—A private letter from Humboldt Bay, California, mentions the following touching incident in connection with the recent massacre of Indians in that vicinity. A portion of the Indians were upon an island in the bay, which the writer had frequent occasions to pass in a boat.—He says:

"Often, when groping my way down in a dark night and thick fog, have the Indian fires gleamed up and shown me just where I was, or the voices of the children reached me told the same story. There is a shoal spot close by the head of the Island that I have often been able to keep clear of these signs. One little 'four year old' used to run by down on the beach and hail me as I passed on a fine morning, with the Indian salutation, 'Iraqua,' and I used to make it a point to steer in close the shore, being hold just at that point and toss her something by way of answer; and it used to do me good to see the little one's delight when she unrolled the paper and found the prize. On visiting the horrid scene of the massacre, I recognized this little innocent among the heaps of dead. I washed the blood from her face, wrapped her in a clean blanket and buried her."

SLAVERS.—The N. Y. Herald is informed that no less than six vessels have left that port for the African coast within the past fortnight, all which expect to have negroes for their return cargoes. Among these were a fine clipper ship and a fast sailing brig.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.

A. W. KELLOGG, Sec'y.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville. apr13dawly

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business to which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "PROF. GREEN—O" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. Teachers Institute.

The Institute held at this place, was opened on Monday evening, April 2d, by a lecture from Superintendent Pickard.—The work of Tuesday, commenced at 8 o'clock A. M. The first hour was occupied by Prof. Williams, on the general principles of English Grammar, and methods of teaching it. The subject of Geography was next taken up by Supt. Pickard. The third hour was devoted to the subject of elocution, conducted by J. W. Williams. The afternoon exercises commenced at 2 o'clock.

1st. Mental Arithmetic by Prof. Cornwall, followed by B. A. Barlow, on Practical Arithmetic. After an intermission, the subject of Orthography was taken up by Prof. Williams, and Penmanship by H. Babcock. The last hour was given to miscellany and discussions, in which a large number of teachers participated.

The exercises of Tuesday evening, consisted of an address by Prof. Cornwall, followed by remarks by J. F. Eberhart, commissioner of the common schools of the city of Chicago, and the reading of the Critique, by A. Gunsolus.

The work of Wednesday was conducted chiefly by Supt. Pickard until 10 o'clock, when it became necessary for him to leave, in order to meet another Institute at Horicon. An effecting appeal was made to the teachers, by Mr. Pickard, after which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that we fully appreciate the advantages we have received from the visit of Supt. Pickard, and deeply regret that the pressure of his business calls him away.

The work of the Institute was resumed by Prof. Eberhart, who was joined in the afternoon by Prof. C. H. Allen, of Pennsylvania.

The address on Wednesday, was given by Com. Eberhart, on the subject, "Living and Existing." We have seldom listened to a more impressive speech. Remarks were made by Prof. Allen, whose ability in the management of Institutes is too well known throughout the state to need comment.

The address of Thursday evening, was also given by Com. Eberhart, and met the fullest expectations of those who listened to him on Wednesday evening.

The Critique of Wednesday eve. was read by Mr. N. C. Twining; that of Thursday evening, by B. A. Barlow.

The following resolution was also passed on Friday:

"Whereas, by the provision of our leading educational men, we have been favored with an interview with some of the first teachers in the land, and believing this interview, or love feast has been instrumental in doing much good among the teachers of Albion and vicinity. Therefore Resolved, that we, as members of the Institute tender our most heartfelt thanks to Prof's. Allen and Eberhart, for their eminent services and instruction."

The exercises were closed on Friday afternoon by an address from Dr. Barnard.

The address was as plain and practical, as the man is eminent. It was every way worthy of the character of the man.

The exercises were interspersed with music throughout. There were over ninety teacher's present. The occasion was one long to be remembered by the teacher's who go out from Albion.

T. J. ATWOOD, Sec.

Albion, April 22d, 1860.

In India a lac of rupees is wealth, here a lack of pence is poverty.

A lady whose dress is on fire may be said to stand in her own light.

In practicing benevolence we should give as did the widow, with all her mite.

A man may be said to be in a stew when you make his blood boil.

The man who hunts for wealth hates to lose the first (s)cent.

A woman is like tar:—melt her and she will take any form you please.

When you receive a kindness, remember it; when you bestow one, forget it.

Prentice thinks that laziness is the best labor-saving machine ever invented.

TAKING THE CHANCES.—A Mississippi paper gives utterance to the following opinion:

"Public opinion is fast settling into the firm conviction that either the nominee of the Charleston convention or the nominee the Chicago convention will, for the next four years, holds the reins of government."

If the man had included the Baltimore convention, and any independent candidate who may come on the course, he would have had made a tolerable safe thing of it.

A BUSINESS QUAKER.—The Quakers are, in the main, as every one knows, a thrifty, kind-hearted, and undoubtedly honest people; but in some of them, even as among the "world's honest people," love of filthy lucre will predominate. In one of these farming communities lived friend Benjamin and his son. It was their custom to buy up cattle to fatten for sale. One day Benjamin, Jr., had selected a choice portion of stock from a passing drove, and was about to buy, when Benjamin, Sr., came along.

"Father, I am about to buy these cattle; what dost thee think of them?"

"What does he ask? So much? I guess thee'l get them for less; offer him $800, and wait till morning, if he don't trade."

Filial Ben assented—made an offer in vain—went home with the old gentleman—slept—and next morning, after caring for the stock, mounted his horse to try again to buy the cattle. But on the way he met Benjamin, Senior, returning home with the whole herd in question. Benjamin, Senior, was wealthy as well as smart—he had taken an early start and bought the lot.

"Thee will let me have my 'portion,' will thee not?" asked filial Ben.

"No sonny, of course not; I've bought the whole—want 'em all."

"What? Isn't that a hard trick to play thy own son? and I trusted to thee!"

"Ah, Benny," said pater familias, reprovingly, "thee must be sharp and wide awake; trust nobody, Benjamin; watch everybody; watch thy father, Benjamin; watch thy father!"

Quite likely for young Benjamin the admonition was needless thenceforward.—Phil. Press.

INCIDENT OF THE INDIAN MASSACRE AT HUMBOLDT BAY.—A private letter from Humboldt Bay, California, mentions the following touching incident in connection with the recent massacre of Indians in that vicinity. A portion of the Indians were upon an island in the bay, which the writer had frequent occasions to pass in a boat.—He says:

"Often, when groping my way down in a dark night and thick fog, have the Indian fires gleamed up and shown me just where I was, or the voices of the children reached me told the same story. There is a shoal spot close by the head of the Island that I have often been able to keep clear of these signs. One little 'four year old' used to run by down on the beach and hail me as I passed on a fine morning, with the Indian salutation, 'Iraqua,' and I used to make it a point to sheer in close the shore, being bold just at that point and toss her something by way of answer; and it used to do me good to see the little one's delight when she unrolled the paper and found the prize. On visiting the horrid scene of the massacre, I recognized this little innocent among the heaps of dead. I washed the blood from her face, wrapped her in a clean blanket and buried her."

SLAVERS.—The N. Y. Herald is informed that no less than six vessels have left that port for the African coast within the past fortnight, all which expect to have negroes for their return cargoes. Among these were a fine clipper ship and a fast sailing brig.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the new material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "Prof. GREEN—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. A. PALMER.

COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of John Cawley, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Wm B Hawes the administrator of said estate, setting forth the amount of personal estate that has come to his hands, and the disposition thereof, the amount of debts outstanding against said deceased, and the expenses of the administration of said estate, and a description of all the real estate of which said deceased died seized, and the condition and value of the respective portions thereof, and praying that license be to him granted to sell so much of said real estate as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses, and it appearing by said petition that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of said administrator to pay said debts and expenses, and that it is necessary in order to pay the same to sell a part of said estate: It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before the judge of this court, at his office in the city of Janesville, in said county on the first Monday of May next, at 10 o'clock A.M. then and there to show cause why license should not be granted to said administrator to mortgage, lease or sell so much of said real estate as shall be necessary to pay such debts and expenses, and that a copy of this order be published for at least four successive weeks, once in each week, prior to said day of hearing, in the Janesville Daily Gazette, a daily newspaper published at said city. March 22d, 1860.

By the court, AMOS P. PRICHARD, County Judge.
